MICHÉAL CASTALDO TO PRESENT EXTRA-VIRGIN, THE MUSICAL, AN EVENING OF "CLASSIC ITALIAN SONGS & OLIVE OIL" AT GERVASI'S, APRIL 9, 2011, TO BENEFIT THE PANCREATIC CANCER SOCIETY

Singer-Songwriter and olive oil connoisseur to offer unique multi-media experience of Italy

WHITE PLAINS, NY March 7, 2011, Gervasi's Restaurant

On April 9, 2011, Vital Records' performing artist michéal CASTALDO will conduct two sets of song and stories, set against the backdrop of majestic vistas of Calabria, Italy, that will feature an audience-participation olive oil tasting and competition. The experience will be a journey through the senses—all for the price of dinner admission to Gervasi's Restaurant.

The evening, dubbed "Extra-Virgin, The Musical," will be co-produced by Gervasi's and Mr. Castaldo's Majestic Castle Music Productions.

The unique multimedia culinary/musical concert is designed to appeal to classical-crossover lovers and fans (those who like Andrea Bocelli, Sarah Brightman, Josh Groban, or Il Divo), olive oil connoisseurs, and all who enjoy la dolce vita, the sweet life.

Mr. Castaldo will sing classic and timeless Italian songs from his current CD, "Aceto," from his previous CDs, "Villa" and "La Dolce Vita 'NAmerica," as well as selections from his repertoire, which will include the intermezzo of Cavalleria Rusticana by Pietro Mascagni, the crowd-pleasing aria "Nessun Dorma" from Puccini's Turnadot, Ennio Morricone's "Nella Fantasia," Verdi's "Va Pensiero". The twist in this show will be the many American Hit songs such as "Stand My Me," "Unchained Melody," "Sound of Silence," "Hallelujah," "I Started a Joke" all sung in Italian.

"I'm very excited to perform in White Plains and to present this special and unique program," Mr. Castaldo says. "Westchester County has a special place in my heart. In the late '80s I was performing regularly in many small towns up the Hudson. My wife heard me perform for the first time at a private affair here."

Between songs, Mr. Castaldo will share his family's story as olive oil producers, which began when his great-grandfather bought a parcel of land with savings he earned as a miner helping to build the

New York City subway system from 1897 to 1905. Audience members will then get a chance to do a blind tasting of four different brands of olive oil (including Mr. Castaldo's own), and will vote on a favorite. At the end of this musical evening the winning olive oil will be announced. CDs and olive oil will be available for sale after the event for those who want to take the "Extra-Virgin, The Musical" experience home with them.

michéal CASTALDO is an award-winning, Italian classical-crossover tenor whose work has been called a "plush world of ballads and utter sweetness" by celebritycafe.com and "the perfect complement to an Italian music collection" by La Gazzetta Italiana. His family's orchards in the foothills of Calabria, Italy, where michéal lived until age 3, have long been committed to producing and distributing fresh and vibrant olive oil at affordable prices. "The result, 'Private Reserve' olive oil... is a textbook olive oil: just the right color, flavor and texture to appeal to everyone," as described by thenibble.com, the online magazine about specialty foods for the connoisseur. www.michealCASTALDO.com

John Gervasi, the former chef of Mulino's in White Plains, has made his new home in White Plains. There's opulent decor at Gervasi's; velvet curtains, murals, water features—and a traditional Italian menu. In recent years Gervasi's has become a venue for young performing artists, provides a venue for creative events such as michéal CASTALDO'S "Extra-Virgin, The Musical."
