

BMI To Present Music, Money Panel

March 21, 2005

Add Joy to Learning -- a non-profit educational program to prepare inner-city youth for music careers -- has linked with BMI to present industry panel and artist showcase, "Music, Money & Success."

The event, which will take place Tuesday (March 22) at the Cutting Room in Manhattan, will feature a panel discussion, "From I-Inspiration to I-Tunes to I-Pod to I-Cash," lead by producer Micheal Castaldo of Vital Records. He will be joined by panelists from Atlantic Records, Vibe magazine and TVT Records, among other industry figures.

The event will feature performances by numerous new artists and a special appearance by former Motown Records act Grenique.

For more information visit www.ajlmusic.com or www.bmi.com.